ON THE ROAD To The Title

ROUND 18 PREVIEW

With the ANZAC Cup game due to be played on Saturday May 29 (see page 16) the Round 18 clash between Macarthur Rams and the Fairfield Bulls has been re-scheduled for Sunday June 13.

Blacktown City v Ryde City

Blacktown is in fine form and shouldn't be caused too many problems by Ryde.

The Demons are on top of their game, and it is hard to see Ryde getting through the stiff Demons defence. Up front Jon Angelucci seems to be starting to find his goal scoring boots, and he may get a few chances here.

Ryde are hopeful that James Stubbs-Mills, their former player who has been on loan at Northern Spirit, will make his comeback for the Gunners here. The Spirit has released Stubbs-Mills, so with two wins under their belts and a new player the Gunners should be ready for this. Despite that, it will be a tough one for Ryde and Super Soccer can't see them coming away with anything here.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles v Central Coast

Bonnyrigg may have lost striker Colin Luff, maybe for the season, after injury against Macarthur Rams two weeks ago, and the Super League leading scorer will obviously be missed. However, with recent signings Ray Younis and Joe Bruni added to their existing squad it should mean the White Eagles will be far too strong for the Coasties - although Coach John Turner will be hoping his team don't wait until the last 30 minutes like last week!

Leichhardt's JOHN BUONOVOGLIA cuts inside Blacktown's MATTHEW LOWE

The Coasties are one point clear of the bottom two, and also play bottom club Sutherland Sharks on Tuesday June 1 at Pluim Park (kick off 7:30pm).

The Coasties have the worse attacking record in Super League and have only had five different marksmen for the season - it is unlikely they will get many chances here against Bonnyrigg.

Eastern Suburbs v Parramatta Eagles

Eastern Suburbs have been much improved in the last two weeks, with Coach John Calleja once again shuffling his pack and changing a number of players around position wise. Despite that the Wanderers are only ahead of Sutherland Sharks on goal difference, and with the Sharks playing at home then away to the Coasties on Tuesday they will look to pick up at least a point here.

Parramatta is in striking difference of fifth spot and has a game in hand on all the teams above them. A terrible away record has spoiled a magnificent home record for Roberto Viera's men, who are much changed from the start of the season. They will expect nothing less than all three points here though.

Sutherland Sharks v Bankstown City

Sutherland went bottom after capitulating in the last third of the game last week against Bonnyrigg, and they will be wary of Bankstown today who play a similar game to Bonnyrigg. Striker Craig Hobbs has scored seven times in Super League this season, a fair effort in a struggling side, and the Sharks may well look to grab a player or two from the NSL to help in their fight at the bottom.

Bankstown City Lions have quietly picked up four wins on the trot and slipped into fifth spot. A win here, which is expected, will see the Lions consolidate that fifth spot at the very least and see them up against a host of clubs who are vying for the fifth spot. Striker Mendo Lozevski has now overtaken teammate Zoki Adioski at the top of the goalscoring charts for the Lions with eight for the season.

Leichhardt Tigers v Canterbury-Marrickville

It's a big gala day at Lambert Park on Sunday, and Super Soccer will be there to capture all the action. The Tigers were disappointed not to take anything from their game with Blacktown last week, but if they create the same sort of chances then they will bury them this time. Coach Arno Bertogna will be hoping that goalkeeper Frank Mikuletic and Tom Bazdaric come through the ANZAC Cup clash the day before OK.

Canterbury Marrickville will struggle to make the top five if they don't win here, but it is a big ask after conceding twelve in two games without scoring. Ace marksman Jimmy Nikas is currently unavailable for the Berries and is in Europe on holiday - although with his exquisite skill and goalscoring record Super Soccer would not be surprised to hear if a few overseas clubs are trying to sign him! A win here for the Berries would really see a cluster of clubs looking for those top five spots, but given Leichhardt's good form and the Berries two defeats, a home win on paper does look likely.

Round 17 review

Leichhardt Tigers 0 Blacktown City Demons 1

Mark Fowler was at Lambert Park

Leichhardt's favourite son returned on Sunday, but was only able to watch as his new partner, Steve Karavatakis, was unable to put away a couple of chances that could have changed this match.

John Bounavoglia, making his 'debut' for the Tigers in 1999 after a superb spell at the Newcastle Breakers, was unable to inspire his teammates to victory - and the diminutive striker also picked up a yellow card for his troubles.

The game could have started in sensational fashion, as in the first minute Leichhardt's Chris Lansdown had the ball in the net only for his effort to be ruled out for offside.

An entertaining first half saw very few chances after that created, although on five minutes Angelucci's free kick went close, then on 14 minutes good work by Damien Foxe saw Damon Langan head over. Lansdown cut through the middle of Blacktown's defence after 35 minutes in a brilliant run, and although his shot was deflected wide Bounavoglia was screaming for the ball on the left-hand side of the pitch.

Angelucci tried to emulate Lansdown's feat as he too beat players on his way into the penalty area, but the boots of Frank Mikuletic in the Tigers goal saved the day.

He referee's whistle came as a surprise as the first 45 minutes had flown by, and ten minutes after the re-start came Karavatakis' first chance.

Buonavoglia tricked two down the left flank, and his ball to Karavatakis seemed to get stuck under the strikers feet. By the time he was ready to get a shot in the ball was hoofed away by the Demons defence.

Blacktown's DAMON LANGAN keeps his eye on the ball.

Five minutes later Jon Angelucci put the Demons one nil up as he lurked on he left hand side. A ball played across was flicked onto him, and although he was unmarked and in space he wasted no time in blasting the ball home first time.

A few minutes after Karavatakis tried an overhead kick from distance that sailed over, before Eric Hristodoulou had a long range effort that may well have put a hole in the brick wall that surrounds Lambert Park!

Leichhardt's best chance came with just ten minutes to go, as a slip in the Blacktown defence saw Karavatakis with just Fernando Greco beat. He striker tried chipping the ball over the top of the advancing goalkeeper, but Greco managed to get a big paw to it and Matthew Lowe hacked the ball to safety.

As Leichhardt pushed forward Jason Bennett was unable to capitalise on the inevitable spaces, but with just a few minutes left Vince Savocca, booked in the first half for an incident that saw Langan eventually have to be replaced, lunged at Angelucci. His second yellow left Leichhardt with too big an up-hill battle to climb.

For Blacktown Damien Foxe continued his superb second half to the Super League season, and while Greco had little to do his save from Karavatakis ensured his team go three points. Angelucci's battles with a number of different defenders was good to watch, and for Leichhardt Chris Lansdown caught the eye. At the back although the back three performed well a few gaps seemed to appear, and Hrisodoulou had to keep things in control. There was little between the teams - but Blacktown took one of their chances.

Leichhardt Tigers: Mikuletic, Tesoro, Milicevic (Kdouh), Hristodoulou, Savocca, Boudaher (James), Lansdown, Bazdaric, Talcevski, Karavatakis, Bounavoglia

Blacktown City Demons: Greco, Lowe, Riches, Foxe, Langan (Bradley) Angelucci, Bennett, Smith, Yates, Brown, Sermanni

Goals: Blacktown: Angelucci 60'

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 5 Sutherland Sharks 1

Anyone looking at the score-line of this game will think that it was dominated from start to finish by second placed Bonnyrigg against the lowly Sutherland side. Not true.

Sutherland led in this one for over an hour, and only a 62nd minute substitution which saw newcomer Joe Bruni come on changed the complexion of the game.

Bruni had an immediate impact, scoring with his first touch for his new club. A Robert Gomez effort hit the post, but Bruni put the ball away to equalise Craig Hobbs 44th minute effort for the Sharks.

Hobbs goal had come after good work by Keegan Pillay, who had intercepted Paul Richardson's square ball before finding Hobbs for his seventh of the season.

After Bruni's goal Bonnyrigg piled forward, and were able to make it 2-1 after 72 minutes. Again Bruni was involved, and his mistimed header was met by Javier Mancino.

That man Bruni was involved again a minute later, his shot being rebounded to Ben Green to make it 3-1, then it was 4-1 after 77 minutes when Bruni smacked a left footer off the crossbar from just inside the area.

Deep into injury time Mancino got his second of the game and seventh of the season when he finished off more good work by Gomez, to leave the score-line looking very healthy.

Sutherland were more than competitive in the first half and the early stages of the second, but couldn't cope with the attacks of Bruni, Mancino and Gomez.

Blacktown's JASON BENNETT tries to get through MITE TALLEVSKI and ERIC HRISTOPOULOU

Fairfield Bulls 1
Eastern Suburbs 1

Eastern Suburbs picked up a valuable away point at Nineveh Field on Sunday with a gritty performance against the rampant Bulls.

The Bulls missed a host of chances, and had only a 15th minute penalty to Mark Hoenselaars to show for their efforts.

For the Wanderers Mark Beldham scored his second in two games, and the improvement shown against Bankstown the week before surfaced again as they picked up a valuable point - made even better by rivals Sutherland and Central Coast losing.

The Bulls have relied heavily on their two talented strikers Matthew Borg and Hoenselaars this season, but apart from Hoenselaars penalty they were unable to add to a partnership that had yielded 22 goals at the start of play.

After the penalty the game petered out, but Borg could have put the Bulls ahead on 38 minutes when he was put through, but shot wide with just the goalkeeper to beat.

On the stroke of half time the Bulls came even closer as Hoenselaars shot hit BOTH posts before coming out to safety.

Darren Iocca enjoyed a return to the first grade team with a good performance, and he was the architect of two more opportunities for Hoenselaars, the striker again failing to add to his tally.

Beldham made the Bulls pay when he scored from close range after 66 minutes, and although Matthew Borg had a shot cleared off the line on 75 minutes and Adam Mark saved well from Michael Reda at the death, it was definitely a case of two points dropped for Fairfield.

Parramatta Eagles 5
Canterbury Marrickville 0

The Berries' woes continued against the Parramatta Eagles as they went down by five goals to nil, just a week after having seven put past them by Blacktown.

There was no sign of what was to come at half time however, as although Parramatta had gone ahead through midfielder Tom Haythornthwaite it had been an even game. Haythornthwaite had broken the deadlock in the 37th minute, when an Anthony Panzarino ball over the defence saw the midfielder race forward and beat Steve Tolios with a curled effort into the far corner of the net.

It was tough on Canterbury Marrickville, but they hit back just before the break and nearly scored through Talcevski. A corner saw the ball fall to the midfielder, but the excellent Jason Holmes, Parramatta's goalkeeper, denied him.

Four minutes after the re-start Parramatta made it 2-0 through Mark Revely, the big defender getting his second in two games. Good work by Conde saw the ball go to Sasha Utjesenovic, and his cross was flicked goalwards by Grant Bard. Steve Tolios in Canterbury Marrickville's goal saved Bard's effort, but Revely was there to nod the ball in.

Five minutes later the game was over as a contest when young striker Adam Anderson scored the first of his two goals. Geoff Dwyer's cross from the left found Bard, who cleverly found Anderson to chest the ball down and finish neatly.

Canterbury Marrickville tried to get back into the game, but three goals down became four Anderson scored his second. A good patient build up saw Bard turn his defender before finding Anthony Panzarino. Panzarino layed the ball to Anderson who, like Bard, turned his defender before finishing well with his left foot.

The Berries' miserable run continued with five minutes to go when Terry Palapanis brought down big Paul O'Grady, and Bard scored his 12th of the season from the penalty spot.

Bankstown City Lions 2
Macarthur Rams 1

Macarthur Rams suffered another setback to the title challenge in going down 2-1 to the Bankstown City Lions. The win means the Rams are virtually consigned to being unable to catch the competitions top two, but at the same time the result sealed Bankstown's fourth win in the last four games.

Both teams went all out for maximum points in this one, and after just four minutes the Rams Adrian Macerola tried his luck on goal. Four minues later it took an excellant save by Zlatko Josevski to keep the scoreline at 0-0, then it was the Rams John Crawley who had to save a minute later after a charge by Mile Todorovski, who combined with Stewart Van Bentum and Tony Josevski before Josevski's shot.

On 24 minutes came the first goal of the game, Bankstown's recent signing Sasho Dimoski scoring for the Lions, and just seven minues later it could have been 2-0, Dion Valle clearing the ball from Dimoski after the striker took too long in the penalty area The Rams got back into it after 40 minutes, the impressive Richard Luksic unfortunately putting through his own net.

After the break Macarthur had an effort that hit the post, but in an entertaining match it was the Lions who took the lead with 20 minues to go.

A pass from the returning Michael Hawrysuik to Van Bentum saw the ball work its way to Mendo

Lozevski, who scored for the Lions.

It wasn't to be for Macarthur, as in the last minute a save by Josevski prevented them from taking anything away from Jensen Park - a loss which now sees them six points behind Bonnyrigg.

Ryde City Gunners 3
Central Coast 2

Ryde City made it two wins out of two as they moved well clear of the bottom three, but not without a scare.

The Central Coast Coasties looked the team more likely in the first 20 minutes or so, and despite missing a host of players through injury or suspension it was the visitors who took the lead.

Just 21 minutes had gone when youngster Clint Smith, recently brought up into the Coasties first grade side, scored his second cracker in the past few games. His 25 metre drive means a few teams will be quicker to start closing the youngster down in future.

Peter Preston and Smith went close, before a mix-up just four minutes after the Coasties had gone ahead saw Craig Sharpley chip the ball over the stranded Gary Meier to level the scores.

Ten minutes later Sharpley should have made it 2-1, but somehow contrived to mis-kick the ball with the goal gaping. Sharpley again came close when he brought the best out of Meier, but on the stroke of half time Aydin Cetinay did make it 2-1 to the home side.

Ryde had enjoyed a good period in the last 20 minutes of the first half, and this continued as both Cetinay and Sharpley, again, came close.

The Gunners sealed their win in what was an open match after 72 minutes when Cetinay got his third. A corner which saw numerous Coasties defenders and only two Ryde attackers in the penalty area, was despatched by the tall Cetinay for his fifth of the season.

The Coasties came back and Peter Preston scored after a Justin Norman shot had been blocked, and while nathan Byrn, Preston and Smith all went close it was Ryde's day.

ANZAC CUP

The New South Wales Soccer Federation has named a strong squad for the re-arranged ANZAC Cup game against Northern New South Wales to be played on Saturday May 29.

The game was originally washed out on ANZAC Day, but will now go ahead on Saturday at Jack McLaughlin Oval. Kick off is 3:00pm, with the ANZAC Shield clash between the women's teams kicking off at 1:00pm.

The squad selected by former Socceroo defender Doug Utjesenovic contains just the one change to the original squad, Canterbury Marrickville's Jim Nikas being unavailable, so his place is taken by Parramatta's Ahmed Elrich.

The full squad is -
Alex Trposki - BANKSTOWN CITY LIONS
Richard Luksic - BANKSTOWN CITY LIONS
Borislava Dragas - BONNYRIGG WHITE EAGLES
Paul Richardson - BONNYRIGG WHITE EAGLES
Robert Gomez - BONNYRIGG WHITE EAGLES
Peter Preston - CENTRAL COAST
Frank Mikuletic - LEICHHARDT TIGERS
Tom Bazdaric - LEICHHARDT TIGERS
Matthew Lowe - BLACKTOWN CITY DEMONS
Jason Bennett - BLACKTOWN CITY DEMONS
Ahmed Elrich - PARRAMATTA EAGLES
Matthew Borg - FAIRFIELD BULLS
John Crawley - MACARTHUR RAMS
Dion Valle - MACARTHUR RAMS
David Reid - MACARTHUR RAMS
Kain Rastall - MACARTHUR RAMS
Trevor Whiddett - MACARTHUR RAMS
Craig Sharpley - RYDE CITY
Coach - Doug Utjesenovic
Manager - Laki Konistis

Coach Doug Utjesenovic will not be happy with merely a win, but also expects his team to play some good football, so this is definitely one game not to miss!

SOCCER EXPO A FIRST

The Soccer Expo to be held at the Sydney Showgrounds from 11-13 June is a first for Australia.

Following a very successful overseas format, the Soccer Expo combines a seminar program, demonstrations and several exhibitors.

Organisers have dubbed it "the Easter Show of Soccer" - presumably without the bunnies - and are expecting at least 50,000 visitors to the Expo over the three days.

Highlights of the three days including an appearance by the Socceroos playing in the 12 June game against the FIFA All Stars on the Friday at 5.30pm, a schools knock-out competition which runs over the three days, coaching demonstrations from Terry Venables and Raul Blanco as well as clinics from some of Australia's most outstanding football talents such as Mark Bosnich, Mark Viduka, Paul Okon and Craig Foster.

The Federation's Coerver Kids will also be giving a demonstration of their expertise on the Friday from 5.00pm-5.30pm, just prior to the Socceroos appearance.

The seminar program is varied and includes discussion on the future of the code, marketing issues, coaching issues and an interesting panel discussion on Australians playing overseas with three of our greatest exports - and now all national league coaches - David Mitchell, Frank Farina and Graham Arnold.

The NSW Soccer Federation will also be part of the Expo. The Football in NSW site will involve a walk-through exhibition showing the history of the game in NSW, some of the great playing and non-playing contributors, information on women's soccer, indoor soccer and involvement from some of the NSW NSL clubs. For those of you who like to surf the 'Net, there will be a large computer monitor with some favourite football sites, and there will be a video wall showing historical and current footage of some great (and not so great!) games. We'll also have a great competition with a chance to win an autographed Socceroo shirt or other great prizes by naming The Socceroo Team of the '90s.

In the meantime, Super Soccer has a family pass (2 adults, 2 children) to the Expo to give to ten lucky readers who respond to our quiz below. Send a postcard or sealed envelope to Expo Competition, NSWSF, PO Box 6024, Blacktown BC, NSW 2148 by 3 June, with your answer and details as set out below on the back. Good luck!

ROUND TWELVE SUMMARY

DOLPHINS SURFACE WITH SIX AT THE LAGOON

DOLPHINS AND SAINTS BOTH CRASH IN SUNDAY GAMES

Conditions may not have suited Manly Warringah at the NSW Academy of Sport stadium at the Narrabeen Lagoon, on Wednesday, with a narrow pitch disrupting their normal pattern of spreading the ball as wide as possible to launch their attack down the flanks, but they still managed to destroy a keen A C United side in front of a very reasonable crowd on a rather dewy night.

A C United looked likely to trouble the Dolphins in the first half, twice going close with shots that skimmed the post and crossbar, but when they came out in the second half, already a goal down, they were to begin a slide into near oblivion.

Manly had an early goal disallowed for offside, called by referee Colin Stubbs who spotted the offence well before his line-running assistant had done so. But they eventually got the ball in the net, from the league's top scorer Dean Harding, who lashed the ball in on the rebound after a low shot from out wide on the left by Damian Rosenthal had struck the right post in the 32nd minute.

The second half saw numerous chances denied by A C keeper Andres Ferreiro who was under immense and continuous pressure.

Rosenthal had a top game but just could not get the ball in the net. He combined very effectively with Harding and the others, working into scoring positions, but scooping the ball over from right in front as well as hitting the post again.

To the urgings of coach Tony Pezzano, who was not satisfied with anything less than half a dozen judging by his animation on the bench after each goal was scored, Manly went on the rampage.

It all began in the 11th minute when Tom Brooks tested the keeper from a free kick that saw the ball only parried and then hoisted to safety. Brooks also had a header which went just wide at the half hour mark.

After Danny Barbalace had headed just over from a free kick in the 37th A C United showed their first real sign of any promise. Their best attacking player Nino Marvello was well contained by the Manly defence, but a snap shot from out wide by Marcello Ortiz from the right shook the Dolphins as it whistled inches past the left hand post.

Four minutes later Rod Toomey attempted an audacious lob from 30 yards out and Roco Papalia was called upon to tip the ball over the bar.

Given these warning signals it was little wonder that the Dolphins were slow to emerge from the make-shift dressing rooms for the second half.

Rosenthal continued to be out of luck in the remainder of the game, blasting over from close range after a ball played in by Harding in the 50th and then from a throw in the 60th he lifted over again.

Townsend forced Ferriero to tip a long range shot over in the 62nd and then a minute later a glancing near post header by Kelvin Foster, from a corner swung over by Brooks, brought the long awaited second goal.

Townsend's low cross in the 72nd was tucked away by Harding and from a Harding corner Barbalace headed home strongly for the fourth.

Rosenthal hit the post in the 80th before Townsend hit a low shot past the keeper in the 87th.

To wrap it up Townsend added another in the last minute from a ball flicked on by

Rosenthal after being driven into the area by Harding.

On this form Manly would take some stopping.

Keenly looking forward to next Thursday night's showdown with leaders Manly-Warringah Dolphins at St George Stadium, the Saints may have been thinking too far ahead when they travelled to Arlington Oval to take on an injury plagued Stanmore Hawks.

The clearance for Sydney Olympic player Mark Brennan had not come through in time and the former Ipswich Town player had to cool his heels in the grandstand while his new team-mates fumbled their way through a game that the Stanmore team seemed hungrier to win.

The only goal of the game arrived in the 9th minute when Mario Rositano swung over a corner from the left which saw the ball cross the goalmouth harmlessly enough, but when Adrian Lara cut the ball back again from the right byline Malcolm Adams was able to tap in from point blank range for what proved to be the winning 1-0 lead.

Socrates Bakafoukas was Stanmore's best with his constant hard work, but the Saints' striker Louis Dounis was out of touch and squandered several clear cut chances.

Meanwhile Manly's unbeaten run came to an end at Rockdale where Danny Barbalace's 27th minute header was not enough against an in-form local Suns team. Goce Trposki equalised in the 47th and Spase Najdoski grabbed the winner right at the end.

Barbalace had the Dolphins' band of travelling supporters squealing with delight when he met Tom Brooks' free kick with a diving header in the 24th minute.

Manly might have gone further ahead had Andy Townsend been able to connect with a cross from Dean Harding who had made a great run down the right flank in the 44th minute, but the tiny midfielder's touch let him down and the grateful Mark Afif was able to collect the ball instead.

Rockdale, by contrast, who had enjoyed an even share of the play for most of the first half, did manage to get on the end of a cross from the right themselves in the 49th Peter Apolevski's ball in being met by 'wunderkid' Goce Trposki with a well-timed header.

In fading light on a dull day at the Soccer Centre, the referee found it necessary to book four players in quick succession in the 57th minute, Dolphins' defender Kelvin Foster seeing red after a second bookable offence, reducing Manly to ten men for the remainder of the game.

Rockdale piled on the pressure as they sought to capitalise on their numerical advantage and hit the bar with three minute remaining.

A long range free kick well into stoppage time saw the ball falling at the feet of the experienced Spase Najdoski, who was able to slam in the winner from close range, inflicting the first defeat of the season on Manly.

Bathurst came unstuck at Alex Lamberton Reserve on Saturday, going down 2-3 to Dulwich Hill who now have some new players in their ranks, including last season's 2nd Division top scorer Alex dos Santos and Canberra Cosmos striker Ivo de Jesus.

It was Bathurst who made most of the early running and it came as a surprise to the locals when referee Vic Gauci turned down their appeals for a penalty after Scott Mutton had been sent tumbling inside the box in the 8th minute.

A minute later, however, Mutton was able to give his side an early lead when he headed the ball past Peter Trajcevski after a good cross from the right by Tony Clancy.

Some good play by Bathurst went unrewarded and the home team dropped down a gear with the inevitable result in the 27th of an equaliser.

Ivo de Jesus was waiting at the edge of the area to slam in a cross from the right, hitting the ball powerfully and giving keeper Mathew Baillie no chance.

Bathurst came closest to regaining the lead when a Mark Rooke cross was laid on for Mutton, but the earlier scorer failed to reach it with his attempted header.

Rooke had better fortune when he was able to head Bathurst back into the lead in the 47th, then Clancy drove his shot wide of the Dulwich goal in the 65th after a nice pass from Mutton.

Phil Cacciola was left all alone at the far post to put his side level in the 67th, while at the other end two minutes later Mutton was again off target when well placed to score again.

Cacciola made way for Zlatko Momircevski in the 78th minute and it was this player who found the ball at his feet in the 82nd when the defence failed to clear, 'keeper Baillie being on the ground and unable to prevent the shot giving Dulwich Hill the winner.

Auburn returned to the winner's circle with a 3-1 success at the expense of a luckless A C United at Mona Park on Sunday.

A C United re-introduced Osvaldo El Ali into the side, after an absence since last season and there were five changes from the side that had been beaten 6-0 by Manly the previous Wednesday night.

Auburn had a chance to take an early lead when an Erkan Demir shot was on target following a corner, but the ball was cleared off the line.

A C managed to hit the front instead when Rod Toomey, aided by a deflection off Auburn defender Ante Krezo, wrong-footed the keeper Haydar Arslan in the 22nd minute.

It was an even contest from that point with much of the play confined to the middle of the park.

Auburn drew level in the 68th when Unal Ogmen strode through the defence and chanced his arm with a shot that found keeper Daniel Vicano wanting.

Auburn's latest capture, Tyrone Lara from Northern Spirit, was just inches over the bar with an enterprising free kick in the 81st minute. A C United responded with a shot of their own which went narrowly wide as the game see-sawed in the closing stages.

Then in the 88th Vicaro was sent off for colliding with Ogmen inside the area and from the penalty spot Taner Omac sent the stand-in keeper the wrong way.

Two minutes later Alan Gordon notched another goal for his new club when he reacted first to a ball that ran loose in a goalmouth scramble to seal the issue for the home side, giving them their first winin three weeks.

Hurstville City Minotaurs were able to beat the hard working Penrith side at Hurstville Oval on the Saturday.

Spiro Kladis gave them a lead in the 25th and then Tom Pontidas extended it in the 36th.

A fine header by George Kalogeras guaranteed the three points in the 71st against a side that had been holding down second spot for some time.

Illawarra Lions are in great form at the moment and it was going to take a better side than Moorebank to stop them pressing on with their charge up the ladder this season.

Valentin Tasevski put Illawarra back in business in the 55th after Martin Richards had shocked the home side with a goal five minutes into the second half.

Alex Krstevski produced the winner for the Lions in the 60th minute and while the Sydney visitors stuck to their task they were to find no way through the home defences again on this particular afternoon.

ROUND THIRTEEN PREVIEW

Tonight (Thursday 27th) is the big showdown at St George Stadium, home of the St George Saints who are protecting an unbeaten home record against the current leaders Manly Warringah. The St George defence has conceded only one goal on the ground all season, Phil Cacciola's effort for Dulwich Hill a month or so back, so how will that statistic square with Manly's 44 goals in only 11 matches?

Will Manly come adrift, just as they did next door last Sunday? Or can they recover to show a clean pair of heels to their well drilled opponents. A good crowd should be on hand and it could well be a classic. Saints will look to new signing Mark Brennan to boost their fortunes, after his transfer from Sydney Olympic was delayed last weekend.

Manly have more mundane fare to consider two days later at Cromer Park when Moorebank are the visitors. They are an improved outfit, but have only managed one win this year and it would be quite an upset if they were to upstage the Dolphins here. Nevertheless, a draw is our prediction.

Penrith tackles Stanmore Hawks at Andrews Road in a change of venue and date and the game could be a battle for second place, depending upon the outcome of St George's Thursday night affair.

Stanmore are coming off a courageous win, while Penrith have lost two on the trot. A Panthers win is still expected, however, given home advantage and the Hawks' indifferent away form this term.

A C United will attempt to put and end to Rockdale's trot of five without defeat, which has coincided with the return of Goce Trposki. He and Spase Najdoski have been banging away the goals so A C will need to watch out for this pair.

Illawarra Lions are also in form and ought to be too strong for Bathurst 75 at Ian McLennan Park.

The regulars at Arlington Oval will have a chance to see Dulwich Hill's new signings in action for the first time at home when Hurstville City Minotaurs are the visitors. Dulwich have improved in their last couple, both away from home, largely due to the inclusion of Ivo de Jesus and Gabriel Gonzales, but also now to the return of Alex dos Santos who was the star of their show last year.

ROUND ELEVEN SUMMARY

Less than a week after being humbled at home by Greystanes, Arncliffe Scots staged one of the season's best recovery efforts to pull back three goals against Mount Druitt to earn a 3-3 draw at Valentine Park last Wednesday night.

Third placed Mount Druitt would have been confident of a six goal haul after racing to a 3-0 lead in the first half hour, but with Arncliffe twice hitting the post through Louis Klimovski in the opening period their opponents could hardly say they were not warned.

Paul Graham got the Town Rangers in front in the 12th minute, his 8th for the season and when Jon Van Waard and Micky Mohamad added two more it looked bleak for a side that came into the game without the suspended Zlatko Nastevski and Steve Josevski, plus the apparent retirement of their top scorer Mike Grbevski. Added to this unavailability of some other regulars and you had a recipe for a hiding once those early goals went in.

Led by sweeper Bill Pilovski and with Louis Klimovski also well to the fore, Arncliffe shocked Mount Druitt with three second-half goals and looked very much like clinching the win as the game drew to a close.

Newcomer Milan Arambasic struck one and Klimovski and Markovski got the others for Arncliffe who have recovered remarkably well from that 0-4 thrashing by Greystanes.

Mount Druitt were so concerned they even changed their keeper near the end in a desperate bid to shore up the defence, but the damage had already been done.

The previous evening Hills United and Greystanes fought out a scoreless draw at Fred Caterson Reserve, giving Greystanes their fourth game in a row without defeat after a slow start.

Mount Druitt must have learned a great deal from their loss of two points on the Wednesday as they managed to show immense character and team spirit to defeat the joint leaders Fraser Park 2-1 at Popondetta Park three days later.

They overcame adversity too, as they were a goal down early, during a period when the visitors were well on top, but managed to draw level a few moments before the break and that gave them the impetus to go on and win the game. They had sweeper Craig Noble sent off early in the second half and midfield dynamo Steve Vanega carted off to hospital with knee cartilage damage sustained during a backs-to-the-wall defensive operation near his own goal line.

Ante Zizic had given Fraser a lead in the 15th minute with a firm, regulation header after a corner swung over from the left by Sean Strang.

When Fraser's keeper Luke McGuire attempted to play the ball out as Mount Druitt danger man Paul Graham loomed up inside his area, after a swift counter attack, it proved too risky a venture as the ball found its way quickly, under pressure to Micky Mohamad on the right byline whose low cross was slotted away smartly by Jon Van Waard.

Instead, the diminutive Leigh Cross seized possession on the right wing near his own penalty area and sent Van Waard away down the right touchline.

From the resultant cross in the 73rd, Graham was able to take on and beat the last defenders and tuck away the winner with a cool finish.

The win was the second by Mount Druitt against leading clubs, having already won 1-0 at Hajduk earlier in the season. Coach Gary Askew was full of praise for his youthful team most of whom he has brought through the ranks from an all-conquering Under 18 side a couple of seasons ago.

A growing injury list is beginning to take its toll on Hajduk Wanderers who could not hang on to a 44th minute goal lead provided for them against Arncliffe by J J Ellul, with a tight finish to a Tony Krslovic cross.

Ten minutes from time Robert Todorovski laid on a cross for Steve Joseveki to volley the equaliser for Arncliffe and thus rob the locals of two precious points, something their rivals were gleefully to note.

Sydney University beat Belmore 3-1 at St Paul's Oval, an early goal by David Gill, from a free kick despatched from the left by Chris Bowman, being quickly cancelled out when Simon Philips' clearance ricocheted off the knee of Jim Alipheris in the 5th minute. A goal in the 29th by Shaun Herat, a sweetly hit drive across the box after good lead up work by Richie McIntyre, Luke McDougall and Bowman restored the students' lead and another by McDougall wrapped it all up in the 65th. The tall, young striker nodded the ball forward and then sent a looping header over the keeper into the top left corner.

At Fred Caterson Reserve Hills opened the scoring in the 9th minute when Francois Finianos lobbed the keeper, after Ashley Mathieson had done some good lead up work, but in the 17th midfield tyro Greg Baldock equalised on the break for the Mounties. In the 32nd Mathieson restored the home team's lead, but by the 58th Baldock had done it again and it was mainly some good saves from Hills' keeper Abdul Alamedine that denied Mount Pritchard an eventual winner.

Hurstville's Steve Zoric leaped to the head of the scorers' list with his second four goal haul of the season in his side" 6-0 demolition of Sydney District at Hurstville Oval.

Greystanes, the winning team's opponents this weekend, continued their form improvement with a 2-0 win over Uni of NSW, Scott Cumming in the 55th and Darren Crittenden in the 65th their scorers.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

In a double weekend of action in the Super Youth League, SUPER SOCCER looks at all the action from rounds 14 and 15 - and the impact the two rounds had on the tables!

G13's

Round 14 review

Blacktown City Demons had a ten point lead going into the weekend, and their comfortable 4-1 victory over the Macarthur Rams did nothing to suggest they will be surrendering that lead.

Wollongong were one of the two teams ten points behind the Demons, and although they won 5-1 at the Central Coast the other team on 27 points, Newcastle Breakers, were held to a 1-1 draw at home to the Southern Branch.

Wollongong also played an extra game for three in a week, as they beat Marconi Fairfield 3-0 in a game brought forward from round 26.

There was more bad news for Marconi Fairfield, as the mid-table club also lost 3-1 at home to the Granville Association on the Saturday.

The Parramatta Eagles were in fourth but lost 1-0 away at the Sutherland Sharks, but the team in fifth, Southern Districts, also lost when they went down 3-1 at Sydney Olympic.

Manly Warringah Dolphins picked up their second win of the season in defeating Sydney United 1-0 and it was even better for Eastern Suburbs, who picked up a shock 1-0 victory over the Leichhardt Tigers to claim their first win of the season.

Round 15 review

Onto Sunday, and with Blacktown not playing Wollongong made it three out of three for the week by defeating the Leichhardt Tigers 3-1.

Despite their draw in Round 14 and a 2-0 home defeat by Sydney Olympic Newcastle remain in third, but Olympic are now in fourth just three points behind.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association are in fifth after a 1-0 win over Eastern Suburbs, while Parramatta, who didn't play. are next.

At the bottom of the table the Central Coast picked up a good point in a 1-1 draw with the Southern Branch, and Sydney United picked up only its second win of the season after beating the Sutherland Sharks 1-0.

Macarthur are just one place but seven points above Sydney United, after the Rams defeated the Manly Warringah Dolphins 2-1 at Cromer Park.

G14's

Round 14 review

Leaders Southern Districts went down heavily in only their second loss of the season, as they crashed 5-1 at Sydney Olympic.

Olympic were third at the start of play, and although the second placed Wollongong Wolves won 1-0 at the Central Coast they went down by the same score to Marconi Fairfield in their round 26 re-scheduled match. The Gladesville Hornsby Association though stopped Marconi Fairfield from collecting another win, as they defeated the home side 2-0 at Marconi no 2.

Sydney United were in fourth and crushed Manly Warringah Dolphins 4-0, but Sutherland in fifth also won, 1-0 at home to the Parramatta Eagles.

Blacktown were in seventh and enjoyed a 2-1 win over the Macarthur Rams, and Leichhardt picked up three points with a 4-1 win over Eastern Suburbs.

The days other game saw the Southern Branch defeat its higher placed hosts, beating the Newcastle Breakers 2-1 at Breakers Stadium.

Round 15 review

After the Sunday action its the Southern Districts who sit at the top of the table, albeit only on goal difference. They do have a game in hand on Wollongong though, as the Southern Districts didn't play.

Super Youth League

Round 16 action

Leichhardt Tigers vs Gladesville Hornsby Association Lambert Park
Eastern Suburbs vs Parramatta Eagles Hensley Athletic Field
Sydney United vs Marconi Fairfield Werrington
Macarthur Rams vs Sutherland Sharks Lynwood Park
Southern Districts vs Manly Warringah Dolphins
Newcastle Breakers vs Blacktown City Demons Breakers Stadium
Central Coast vs Sydney Olympic Pluim Park no 2
Southern Branch vs Wollongong Wolves South Nowra Complex
All matches to be played Saturday May 29

The Wolves on the other hand missed their chance to go top after being crushed 502 at home to Leichhardt.

Sydney Olympic are in third but lost 3-2 at Newcastle when a win would have seen them go top.

Sydney United are next but they could only draw 0-0 at home to the Sutherland Sharks, as the top teams continued to slip on in the Sunday games.

Two teams near the bottom, Manly Warringah and the Macarthur Rams drew 1-1, but the Southern Branch ensured the Central Coast remained at the bottom of the table with a 1-0 win at Pluim Park.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association are in sixth place after they defeated Eastern Suburbs 3-2 in a close one, the Association sides second win in two days.

G15's

Round 14

Blacktown City Demons were in first place going into the weekend's fixtures, but they suffered a shock 3-2 home defeat by the mid-table Macarthur Rams.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association were in second but drew 1-1 at the third placed Marconi Fairfield, who won 3-0 in their round 26 re-scheduled match with the Wollongong Wolves.

The Wolves were in sixth going into the round but that result and only managing a 2-2 draw at the Central Coast will not have helped them much.

Southern Districts were in fourth and won 5-2 at Sydney Olympic, and Sutherland are looking good in fifth and with a 3-2 win over the Parramatta Eagles under their belt.

Bottom team Southern Branch lost 3-0 at the Newcastle Breakers, while mid-table Sydney United were winning 1-0 away at Manly Warringah.

Leichhardt Tigers were another mid-table team to win, as they got up 3-0 at home to the Eastern Suburbs.

Round 15 review

Its tighter at the top after Round 15 action, as with Blacktown not playing their lead is down to just three points.

In second are the Gladesville Hornsby Association who beat Eastern Suburbs 5-0, while Marconi Fairfield are in third.

The Southern Districts are in fourth, then comes Wollongong who defeated the Leichhardt Tigers 4-0.

Sutherland are in fifth but went down 1-0 at Sydney United, who moved into sixth on the basis of two wins in two days.

Newcastle come next as they crushed Sydney Olympic 5-1, followed by the Macarthur Rams who defeated Manly Warringah Dolphins 1-0.

The day's other game saw the Central Coast defeat Southern Branch 2-0, the Coasties celebrating their fourth win of the season.

G16's

Round 14 review

Sydney Olympic went into the weekend at the top of the table, and they kept up their good form with a 3-2 win over the Southern Districts side at Potts Park.

Leichhardt Tigers were second and their opponents were bottom of the table Eastern Suburbs, and while the Tigers got up, the scoreline of 4-3 was closer than the table suggested should have been the case.

Newcastle were third going into round 14, and they defeated the Southern Branch 3-0, while Blacktown in fourth were surprisingly held to a 3-3 draw at home to Macarthur Rams.

Parramatta were fifth and won 3-0 away at the Sutherland Sharks, while it was a great few days for Wollongong. They defeated the Central Coast 1-0, and in their round 26 re-scheduled match with Marconi Fairfield won 3-0.

Marconi Fairfield themselves were held to a 1-1 draw in round 14 against the Gladesville Hornsby Association, who were a place above Marconi Fairfield going into the round.

Sydney United come next and they kept in the hunt with a 2-1 victory over Sydney United.

Round 15 review

As the weekend came to a close it was the Tigers of Leichhardt who sat at the top of the table, as they defeated the Wollongong Wolves 2-1 at Brandon Park.

The Tigers have a one point lead over Sydney Olympic, who were held to a 1-1 draw at Newcastle, who are in third.

Blacktown are in fourth with the Wolves fifth, and Sydney United are in sixth after defeating the Sutherland Sharks 3-2.The Gladesville Hornsby Association are next after beating Eastern Suburbs 5-0, then its Parramatta Eagles followed by Marconi Fairfield.

Manly Warringah Dolphins are in tenth after losing to the Macarthur Rams 2-1, then the Central Coast are in thirteenth after beating lowly Southern Branch 3-1.

Round 12 review

G13's

The Illawara Lions remains on top of the Grade 13's table after 12 rounds.

Their latest result saw them defeat the Rockdale City Suns 3-1 away from home, which sees them five points clear of AC United. Not that AC slipped up, as they smashed the Fairfield Bulls 9-0, also away from home. The Bankstown Association is now in third after defeating the Penrith Panthers 2-0, as the team in third going into the round, St George, were hammered 4-1 at home by the Blacktown Association. That result sees St George in fourth and Blacktown Association in fifth, and coming next are Ryde City, who had a good 1-0 victory at Hills United.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles picked up their fourth win of the season in defeating the Canterbury Association 2-0, while Stanmore also have four wins after defeating Canterbury Marrickville 2-0.

G14's

Ryde City remains seven points clear at the top of the table after they defeated Hills United 3-0 at Fred Caterson Reserve. Their new challenger's in second though are AC United, who beat the Fairfield Bulls 4-0 and also Blacktown Association 2-0, in a re-arranged round 9 match. The Blacktown Association however did get some joy from the weekend, as they defeated St George 1-0 in a surprise result - the St George side dropping from fourth spot into fifth.

Bonnyrigg dropped a place because of AC playing two games, but the White Eagles did all they could, winning 3-0 at home to the Canterbury Association.

Canterbury Marrickville picked up a great point at Stanmore Hawks in a 0-0 draw, and Penrith are in fourth after defeating the Bankstown Association 1-0. The day's other game saw the Illawara Lions pick up their third win of the season with a 3-1 away win at the Rockdale City Suns.

G15's

AC United were two points behind leaders Hills United with a game in hand going into the weekends fixtures, and defeats of Blacktown Association (4-1) in their round 9 re-scheduled match, plus a 4-0 away win at Fairfield Bulls in their normal fixture saw the lads from Abruzzi Oval go top.

In fact, they now have a three point lead on Hills, as they could only manage a 1-1 draw at home to Ryde City, who remains in third place.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles won 2-1 at home to the Canterbury Association to move into fourth spot, and the Bankstown Association also moved up after beating Penrith, who were in fourth at the start of he game, 2-1. That loss sees the Panthers move down into sixth.

Although they lost their round 9 re-scheduled clash with AC the Blacktown Association picked up a point at St George after drawing with the home side 1-1, and Stanmore remain in seventh after they defeated Canterbury Marrickville 2-1 at home.

Illawara come next after they had a comfortable 3-0 win at the Rockdale City Suns.

G16's

Leaders Bankstown Association kept up their lead at the top of the table, after a hard-fought 2-1 victory over the Penrith Panthers away from home.

It was a horror weekend though for AC United, second going into the round and with two games scheduled, as they lost 5-4 to Blacktown Association in their round 9 re-scheduled clash and could only manage a 2-2 draw at the Fairfield Bulls.

Those results saw AC drop from second to fifth, as Ryde City continued their good form with a 2-0 win over the Hills United side at Fred Caterson Reserve.

After defeating AC in their re-arranged game the Blacktown Association moved into third, as they also drew 0-0 at St George, and the Illawara Lions remain in fourth spot with a 3-0 away win at the Rockdale City Suns. Stanmore Hawks are in sixth after beating Canterbury Marrickville 3-0, and both Bonnyrigg and the Canterbury Association picked up a point each when they drew 1-1

Round 9 review

G13's

First played second in the G13's and it was the Ku-ring-gai Association who came out on top, defeating the Nepean Association 1-0 at Cook Park. The win opened up a three point gap for the Ku-ring-gai Association, and Macquarie Sports 0-0 home draw against Hajduk Wanderers means the Panthers slipped down to third.

Mt Pritchard stayed in fourth after their 0-0 draw at home to Moorebank Sports, with Hajduk in fifth.

The Camden Tigers were another team to only draw 0-0, this time against Hawkesbury City, and Mt Druitt moved above them after hammering the Granville Association 8-1.

The G13 clash between Parramatta City and CSI Schofields was the only one to go ahead, all the other three grades being washed out, but it was CSI Schofields who took the three points winning 4-1 to move onto 10 points. Parramatta City remains at the bottom without a point after nine games.

G14's

Despite being held to a 2-2 draw at home to Hajduk Wanderers, Macquarie Sports remain at the top of the table. CSI Schofields, second at the start of play saw their G14 clash with Parramatta City washed out, so the Nepean Association were one of two clubs to pick up points and move above them.

Nepean Association had a good 2-1 victory over the Ku-ring-gai Association, while it was easier for Mt Pritchard, who moved into fourth with a 7-0 victory over Moorebank Sports.

The Granville Association defeated Mt Druitt Town 2-1 at home at Garside Park, while Hawkesbury City has won, lost and drawn three after defeating the Camden Tigers 4-2.

G15's

Their was no change in the top four of the Grade 15's, as Hajduk Wanderers, Parramatta City, Mt Pritchard and the Ku-ring-gai Association stayed in one to four respectively.

Hajduk Wanderers have lost just once in nine games after defeating Macquarie Sports 6-1, and Parramatta City remain second despite their game with CSI Schofields being washed out.

Likewise, Mt Pritchard remain third despite losing 2-1 at home to Moorebank Sports, and the Ku-ring-gai Association are fourth after beating the Nepean Association 3-1.

Hawkesbury City and the Camden Tigers are near the bottom of he table after drawing 0-0 against each other, but the Granville Association remain bottom after going down 2-1 to Mt Druitt Town.

G16's

While leaders the Nepean Association were defeating the Ku-ring-gai Association 2-0 at home, Mt Druitt, who were in second at the start of play, went down 2-1 at the Granville Association.

Mt Pritchard needed no second invitation to go above Mt Druitt, defeating Moorebank Sports 7-0, while the Camden Tigers stay in fourth after defeating Hawkesbury City 1-0.

To complete a good day for the top teams fifth placed Hajduk Wanderers defeated Macquarie Sports 5-0, while the Parramatta City and CSI Schofield game was washed out.

Round 9 action

Cadet League Division One

Round 10 review

G11's

Sydney United stretched their lead at the top of the G11's table after defeating Bonnyrigg White Eagles 7-0. That victory, and Canterbury Marrickville surprisingly being held to a 0-0 draw at Parramatta Eagles means Sydney United have 25 points from their 9 games, with the Berries on 22 after the same number of games.

St George are in third after beating Ryde City 3-2 at Wentworth Park, but Macarthur Rams dropped from fourth to sixth after being beaten 2-0 by Marconi Fairfield. That victory saw Marconi Fairfield leap frog the Rams, as did Leichhardt, who defeated bottom club Parramatta City 1-0 at Lambert Park.

G12's

St George took advantage of Sydney United's bye to draw level at the top of the table with United after defeating Ryde City 4-0.

Both those teams then have a six point gap on Marconi Fairfield, who defeated the Macarthur Rams 2-1.

The Parramatta Eagles remain in fourth after disposing of Canterbury Marrickville 7-0, while like their G11's counterparts Leichhardt Tigers defeated Parramatta City 1-0 to move above Eastern Suburbs, who sat out the weekend with a bye.

Cadet League Division Two

Round 12 review

G11's

The new leaders in the G11's are Macquarie Sports, who went top in style after defeating Hurstville City 8-0 away from home. Previous leaders Illawara Lions are in second after defeating Moorebank Sports 6-2, while in what was a good day for the top teams third placed Penrith Panthers defeated Stanmore Hawks 1-0.

The rest of the games ended in draws, with fourth placed Hills United and fifth placed AC United being held to scoreless draws by Mt Druitt Town and Hajduk Wanderers respectively.

There's only one place seperating Hawkesbury City and CSI Schofields after round 12, and their closeness was shown as they drew 2-2 at Bensons Lane.

G12's

Stanmore Hawks increased their lead by another point after defeating Penrith Panthers 2-1 at Arlington Oval, as CSI Schofields moved up into second from fourth with their 2-0 win at Hawkesbury City.

Hills United were second going into the round but were held to a 0-0 draw at home to Mt Druitt Town, and Penrith were in third before their loss to Stanmore.

Such is the closeness at the top of the table the Panthers actually moved down to sixth spot, with Macquarie Sports in fourth now after they hammered Hurstville City 7-0. Illawara Lions also went above the Panthers after defeating Moorebank Sports 5-1; while Hajduk Wanderers went one point above AC United with a 1-0 home victory.

ANTIPODEANS EUROPEAN TOUR

DECEMBER 1999

You could be part of the Antipodeans squad touring Holland, Belgium, France and the United Kingdom during December this year.

The Antipodeans is an invitation team consisting of players from all over New South Wales, Queensland and Victoria, which provides players an opportunity to see the world through their sport.

The cost of the 3 week tour is approximately $4,200, which includes airfare, accommodation, all internal travel, most meals, travel insurance and departure taxes. Some of the highlights include visits to Wembley, Paris, London, Amsterdam and watching a premier league soccer game live! Players of ALL levels are invited to apply, and the group is closely supervised by experienced coaches and managers throughout.

Interested players aged between 15 and 18 years of age should call tour co-ordinator Brad Fussell on 9413 1843
